

Course Title

Exam Board

Computer Science GCSE

AQA

Course Description

This course will help students to engage in learning which is relevant to them and will provide opportunities to develop a range of skills and techniques that will enhance their knowledge in an academically challenging programme of study. Students will study programming languages for a non-exam assessment, developing a systematic approach to problem solving, drawing on skills learnt in the theory units.

Students will study a range of topics to prepare for their end of course examinations including: Networks, cyber security and data representation.

Type of Assessment

20% Coursework; 80% Exam

Special Requirements

Students need to be extremely organised for their coursework and have a very high aptitude for maths.

Career and Progression Opportunities

Students completing this course equipped with the logical and computational skills necessary to succeed at A-level, the workplace or beyond.

Link to Syllabus

<http://www.aqa.org.uk>