Dear Parent/Carer

Re:

Several parents/carers have asked for forthcoming dates for both mocks and real exams. I hope the attached list will be of some use to you.

JCQ (Joint Council for Qualifications) has announced that 26 June will be Exams Contingency Day, all students and exams staff must be available on that day should a local or national emergency occur that affects any of the planned dates.

Students will be given their mock timetables immediately after half term.

Individual timetables for the summer exams will be given out immediately after February half term, with a detailed timetable with rooming and seat numbers, being given out after Easter.

I hope this information helps but, as always, please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Kind regards

Lee Bothwell
